

Satellite Radio traffic and weather channels provide me with safety information not available any where else. Many times while traveling I'm between radio stations or they are not available ,that is when Satellite Radio is especially valuable.